

Black Label Society, Hey You (Batch Of Lies)

Out of touch
You're out of time
Left alone
Yourself to find
Bound & chained by your silence
Things to be known
If it awakens,
Just Where..
Where Will It Go Now?

Hey, Hey You
What ya gonna do?
When you open your eyes
And you realize
Hey, Hey You
What ya gonna do?
When you open your eyes
And you realize
That batch of lies was really the truth

The Paranoia
The fear they're your friends
Wish to hear nothing
While seeing all the same
Bound & chained by your silence
Things to be known
If it awakens,
Just Where...
Where Will It Go Now?
