

Black Label Society, Superterrorizer

I'm your suicidal, doomsday matchine.
Bestowing my grace on everything.
My ill will shall never leave.
Embracing untill you cannot breath.

Crashing, burning, in you I confide.
I'll drink and spew all your blood stained pride.
You're just a pinball inside my matchine.
Untill you reach the falls, my closing stream.
