

Black:List, Sweet Girl Of Mine

I think I fell in love
When I see you on the streets
I can't believe that I'm looking into your eyes
Sweet girl of mine
This is what I feel
Sweet girl of mine
I've seen you in my dreams
And I could touch your soft skin
We talked for hours about the things that make you cry
Sweet girl of mine
There was only you and me
I lose my mind when you smile at me
Seems like you fly with angel wings
Remember my words
If no one wants to hold you
If you need a man to love you
I'm right here, just let me try
I know I'm not the perfect guy
But I want to make you happy, I try to do it right
Sweet girl of mine
I fell in love for you
I lose my mind when you smile at me
Seems like you fly with angel wings
Remember my words
If no one wants to hold you
If you need a man to love you
I'm right here, just let me try
But it hurts when you don't look at me
I feel so far away from you
So don't go away, girl
Don't go away, girl
Don't go away, girl
Don't go away from me
I lose my mind when you smile at me
Seems like you fly with angel wings
Remember my words
If no one wants to hold you
If you need a man to love you
I'm right here, just let me try
