

Black President, Not Enough

one for you and two for them is not enough, not enough to work you fingers bloody not enough
one for you and ten for them is
to try and feed your family
not enough
if they can't own you... they'd just as soon throw you away one for you and two for god is too much, too much
the meek inherit nothing too much
one for you and ten for god is
too much, too much
gabriel charges to play
too much
if they can't own you...
give it away
they tax your soul but I won't pay hey hey, give it away
hold the door open for a thief give a hood to a racist stand naked for a rapist well that's what you're saying when you keep on paying and you keep on staying down for...
...laying down for this
if they can't own you...
cuz they can't own me I'm here to deal only in truth and nothing else throw everything else away
