

Black President, So Negative

All hands on deck and off my neck
Mutiny plagues, my ship has been wrecked
This hook is bloody from tearing out the throats
Of traitors like you who poison my boat
(And I say)
Why are you so negative?
Your anger needs a sedative
All I wanna do is live
So why are you so goddamned negative?
This man overboard will call on your lord
To welcome you home when I've settled the score
Drunk on the venomous wine of disdain
Stupid and dizzy, you vomit my name
Why are you so negative?
Your anger needs a sedative
All I wanna do is live
So why are you so goddamned negative?
It's gonna get ugly and unholy
You better look away
I'm gonna get ugly and unholy
When I get my way
Over your crew of lies the Jolly Roger flies
I'll sink my dagger into your one good eye
Why are you so negative?
Your anger needs a sedative
I just wanna fucking live
So tell me, tell me
Why are you so negative?
Your anger needs a sedative
All I wanna do is live
So why are you so goddamned negative?
