

Black Sabbath, War Pigs (Alternate Version)

Witches gather at black masses
Bodies burning in red ashes
On the hill a church in ruin
Is the scene of evil doin'
It's the place for all bad sinners
Watch them eating dead rat's inners
Ahh I guess it's the same
Where ever you may go
Oh lord yeah
Carrying banners which denounce the lord
See me rocking in my grave
See them annoint my head with dead rats blood
See them stick the stake through me, oh
Don't hold me back oh I just gotta go
Satan's got a hold of my soul now
Look at my brain in sync with bloodened sea
Look in my eyes, I'm there, I know, yeah
On the scene a priest appears
Sinners falling at his knees
Satan sends out funeral pyres
Casts the priest into the fire
It's the place for all bad sinners
Watch them eating dead rat's inners
Ahh guess it's the same
Where ever you may go
Oh lord yeah
