

Black Train Jack, The Newest One

The fact is that I can't change
The way I think or feel
Because I believe in something real
Put to the test
And I still come out on top
Put down by the rest
Looking back they're
The ones who flopped
I can't hide
All the truth inside
I can't lie
I'm like a book
You can read me if you like
The fact is that I can't change
The life I've made for me
'cause I believe in all that's real
