

Blackbear, gfy (feat. Machine Gun Kelly)

So, tell me what you want from me, can we just pretend?
Pretend that you didn't try to fuck all my friends
Wish I could erase you, you're tattooed in my head
There's three little words that I should have said
Go fuck yourself

Look at this picture, something ain't right
I'm feelin shitty, broken inside
You cut me up in four letter lines
Stabbin my back with this four letter lie
You gave my hoodie to some other guy
I fell for you and im payin the price
Do you do it for clout?
Do you do it for hype?
Do you do it for love?
Do you do it for likes?

I am so high, there's stars in my eyes
I wanna go back, I wanna rewind
You got so many faces, gemini
You're worse than all of my exes combined

I said that last time would be the last time
You always fucking gaslight, you're never all alone
I need to say what's on my mind and then it's goodbye
You left me high and dry and now I gotta go

So, tell me what you want from me, can we just pretend?
Pretend that you didn't try to fuck all my friends
I wish I could erase you, you're tattooed in my head
There's three little words that I should have said

Go fuck yourself
I wish you well, but go to hell Go fuck yourself
I wish you well, but go to hell Go fuck yourself
