

Blackened, Broken Eyes

Just a lifeless shell roamin' in between a shadow of myself, of the man that I have been

Will I ever see with my own eyes
Will I ever see beyond these lies

Refrain:

(Fallin', Dyin')

Still I can hear my cries deep below my body lies

Still I can hear my cries
I fall asleep with broken eyes

This blemished fate for me was chosen in a devil's heart black as blood in winter frozen
