

Blackhawk, Leavin The Land Of The Broken Hearted

(Paul/Robbins/Miller)

I see my mom and dad wedding picture hanging in the hall
That picture of happiness tries to sell it but it doesn't tell it all
It been 22 years since they walked down the aisle
Now they seldom talk and I never see m smile
Theye living their lives in the land of the brokenhearted

My old man gave me a job right out of high school
Just like his old man did
It a dead-end street of barely making ends meet
That I just can live with
Now we can hang around here and wind up the same
Or kick it in gear girl and outrun the pain

Wee leaving the land of the brokenhearted
Lettin' our motors run
The sea of tears has finally parted
Baby our time has come
Wee getting out now while we still have forever
For you and me girl, it now or never
Wee leaving the land of the brokenhearted

It a lottery ticket chance of getting out and I never met a winner
No nothing ever changes around here but the weather and what they had for dinner
It a chain of broken dreams and we were born to break it
That bitter pill theye dealing, wee not gonna take it

Wee leaving the land of the brokenhearted
Lettin' our motors run
The sea of tears has finally parted
Baby our time has come
Wee getting out now while we still have forever
For you and me girl, it now or never
Wee leaving the land of the brokenhearted

Wee leaving the land of the brokenhearted
Baby wee leaving, just you and me
Yeah wee leaving the land
Leaving the land
Leaving the land of the brokenhearted
Leaving the land, leaving the land
Leaving the land of the broken, brokenhearted
