

Blackhawk, "When I Find It, I'll Know It"

I gotta trust my instincts, they seem to know what's best
Whatever anyone else thinks, that's up to them I guess
No cheap imitations, no blind invitations
Can't say what it's supposed to be, but one thing I can guarantee
When I find it, I'll know it, I'll feel it
I'll let that feeling take me
Anywhere it wants to go
And it might not be easy to describe it
But I believe when I find it
I'll know it's love
They say, "This painting is a work of art"
But it just doesn't move me, it doesn't touch my heart
I can't say what's missing, it's like an empty kiss
The passion's just not there but I know someday, somewhere
When I find it, I'll know it, I'll feel it
I'll let that feeling take me
Anywhere it wants to go
And it might not be easy to describe it
But I believe when I find it
I'll know it's love
Can't say what it's supposed to be, but one thing I can guarantee
When I find it, I'll know it, I'll feel it
I'll let that feeling take me
Anywhere it wants to go
And it might not be easy to describe it
But I believe when I find it
I'll know it's love
I'll know it, I'll feel it
I'll let that feeling take me
Anywhere it wants to go
And it might not be easy to describe it
But I believe when I find it
I'll know it's love, I'll know it's love
I'll know it's love, I'll know it's love
