

Blackmail, Away With The Fairies

may, what is wrong?
why don't you stay in the sun?
won't you come out to play?
i see you hide behind the gate.
you don't share what you've got you save it all and keep it locked you want to please me in mind?
well, i'm safe but you seem to be blind.

don't you see your dreams
are sleeping down in me?
you don't need to stop the rebellion,
i'll push you when you creep.
just come back.

may, why are you down?
we can't see what went wrong.
you're equipped with a gun and shot all the rebels down.

don't you see your dreams
are sleeping down in me?
you don't need to stop the rebellion,
i'll push you when you creep.

you think your mind will change.
all your life your mind has changed.
you know that some will go
and some of them will never know.
my head is mine
and your head is yours.
don't try to change it
that's the way it goes.
