

Blackmail, So Long Goodbye

can't you see that emptiness has failed like a failure in my head
that there's always someone else who will try to understand
that everything is replaced here in my head

I'm grieving
I found out how to prove it you can shout out whta you're feeling but I don't know how to use it I told you that I have to feel safe so why don't you get off my way in and out you're leaking
