

Blackmore's Night, Queen for a day part I

A featherbed to rest my head On roses would I lay A full moon would glow every night And summer