

Blackpool Lights, This Town's Disaster

I seem to push motives aside
How many days was last night
On the verge of a collapse
I knew that it would never last

Wasted, this town's disaster is sinking in
And all my world is caving in

All this guilt will weigh me down
The king of pain I'd wear the crown
Battered cliché in moves I make
This was my last mistake

Wasted, this town's disaster is sinking in
And all my world is caving in
Where do I start, I can't begin
This town's disaster is sinking in

A little weak and on and on
Another day and I'll be gone, so gone
