

Blackstreet, Brown Eyes

Ooh wow brown eyes

I was chilling on the club one day yeah

I've seen this girl walking my way she was my fantasy lady

Five Five with pretty brown eyes bad girl hypnotize me when she(?) at me and smiled and i cant get

Everytime i close my eyes i think about her brown eyes and even when i had day dream am picturing

Next day i was walking on the FL could this wanna see her pass me by not this time i gotta make her

Everytime i close my eyes i think about her brown eyes and even when i had day dream am picturing

Miss brown eyes

I think about her everyday, faded things of which you say by ever (see her again)

See i never feel like this before is a love that i can ignore

She got me feeling some kind of way and i dont even know her name

Cant forget her brown eyes... everytime i...oh i think about you

i dont need u know i dont need u know honey

Such a shame...catch her name...Miss brown eyes yeah

Chorus till da end
