

Blade, Returning To Society (Acoustic)

I'm livin' in a dreamland
I think the world revolves around my head
But I have never heard such
Bullshit so this instead...

Chorus:

I'm returning to society
This dreams gone on way to far
Be returning to society
For that's where we are
There may be hate
May be suicide
But your world is fake
That you can't DENY
I'm blocking out the hatred
I'm resisting the wrong
But my whole world is fake and
I've dreamt it oh so long

Chorus

There's nothing a fantasy's good for
I'm returning to society
And I'm gonna have face reality
I'm returning to society
So I'm face reality
Face reality
