

Blank & Jones, The Hardest heart

Caress the hardest heart.
The light of the world.
That the golden day unfurl.
On every way, on every hill.
Each angered fist uncurl
Caress the hardest heart
Stir the sleeping earth.
Each stone.
Each blade of grass.
The soul of the world.
Ignite a brand new day.
Let the morning sun proclaim.
A brand new start.
Caress the hardest heart.
Caress the hardest heart...
Caress the hardest heart.
The light of the world.
That the golden day unfurl.
On every way, on every hill.
Each angered fist uncurl
Caress the hardest heart
Stir the sleeping earth.
Each stone.
Each blade of grass.
The soul of the world.
Ignite a brand new day.
Let the morning sun proclaim.
A brand new start.
Caress the hardest heart.
Caress the hardest heart?
Caress the hardest heart?
