

Blank Logic, Losing Sleep

verse 1: A broken heart torn in two is all I have to remember you.
I hope your happy with what you've done, now I feel so alone.
and I dont know if I can, get over you and those things you said.
It's hard for me to look in the mirror and it's hard to get out of bed.

Pre-Chorus: I dont want sympathy,
I just want you here with me.

Chorus: It rains all night, since you said goodbye.
My heart is full of sadness.
And it's hard to sleep, cause your in my dreams.
I pray you'll come back to me.

Verse 2: I found the letters that you wrote back when we were in high school.
And the pictures from the weekend we spent in Santa Cruz.
And I dont know what possed you to make you wanna run away.
Everything was going perfect until that stupid day.

Pre-Chorus: 1x

Chorus: 1x

Bridge: I miss you, so bad.
And I want you so bad.

Chorus: 2X
