

Blanks 77, No One Cares

Dont wanna be in your X Generation aint part of your new sensation theres a fire burnin' in my eyes teenage aggression no compromise theres a fire burnin' in my eyes

(Chorus:)
no one cares (no one cares)
no one cares (no one cares)
I dont care - and nobody understands

Im on a mission that i gotta complete im on a mission against the man on the street I got no money but it dont matter beauty in anger - anger is the power I got no money but it dont matter searchin' for a place where I fit in runnin in the rat race i'm gonna win dont ever tell me theres no place like home when i'm home im all alone dont ever try and tell me theres no place like home
