

Blaqk Audio, Semiotic Love

I will ask you this
Can you spare a kiss?
Can you picture this coming from my lips?
I whisper from miles away
I will send you this
And seal it with a kiss
Can you take this lipstick and lightplay
And carry it miles away

I will walk across the ocean
To where the sky meets the sea
Give this ghost my devotion
To keep you from me

Just say
Goodbye
I live
And I'll die
Hooked on a star
Enraptured by the sky
In love with a satellite

I can now admit
I'm lost in loveliness
Who can just resist distant beauty?
Find me if you find a way
You may love it if
You tried this detachment
From this distance the beauty burns brightly
It's warmer from worlds away

Just say goodbye
I live
And I'll die
Hooked on a star
Enraptured by the sky
In love with a satellite

I'll stand forever
And love whatever
Breaks my heart
Oh, oh, oh...

I'll stand forever
And love whatever
Breaks my heart
Oh, oh, oh...

Just say
Goodbye
I live
And I'll die
Hooked on a star
Enraptured by the sky

Oh

Just say goodbye
I live
And I'll die
Hooked on a star
Enraptured by the sky

Just say (just say)
Goodbye
I live (I live)
And I'll die
Hooked on a star
Enraptured by the sky
