Bone bone bone bone bone bone bone bone so tell me what youre gonna do when there aint nowhere to run when judgement comes 4 u
so tell me what ur gonna do when there aint no place 2 hide
cuz its gonna come 4 u

Chorus

see u at the crossroads crossroads crossroads [3 times after that]

[Flava] so why you gotta go and pray your gonna make it some day you got a job so why do u want a raise why you wanna act tough why cant you play this whole fame

when it comes youll be one of a kind but b4 this keep all this in your mind cos i will hold you till the end of the line want all this youll be mad to decline

[reepa]so what you gonna do when everydays the same try and do this shush just 4 a glimpse of fame didnt mean 2 do it just put yourself 2 shame didnt want 2 kill her just tryin 2 play the game wen u reach the crossroads where you gonna go go with your coinsience just let your feelings flow lifes up lifes down but things can turn around innocent or guilty you will soon be found

[krazy]

so what ya gonna do when ppl h8 u jack you beat you
they dont like you cant run away coz they will find you prayin for answers wot ya gonna do make decisions where ya gonna go take the crossroads go with the flow you gotta come easy and then you gotta go your livin in a hateful world keep low

[breakdown]

mhhh and we pray and we pray and pray we pray everyday everyday everyday everyday and we pray and we pray and we pray and we pray still we lay

[kenzie]

theres things in life you have to make which path you take is like deja-vou stand by your side stand next to you be there in the middle when your passin through in the middle meet you at the crossroads between love and hate between good and evil we can see right through you when you tell the truth or a single lie you betta think you made a man cry dont wanna talk about the day your gonna die sooner or later that day will come when you have to make a right or wrong decision the path your take and make good or bad just separate

u wanna do this, ssh Try and resist at the end of the day its up to you ill be there in the middle when your passin through

[chorus x2]
(so you wont be lonley)

[rockyb] see you at the crossroads see you
