

Bleach, Good

What goes around, comes around
And I cant breathe
What holds me up is what holds me down
And I am more unstable than I seem

My heart is bare
Theres not much there

But I believe youve given me
More than I could know
But I know this
You are good

Ive fought the fight against myself
And Ive lost the fight again
My bodys broke from falling down
Just give me one more chance this time Ill win

My heart is bare
But I know that youre there

My eyes are weak I can barely see
A glimmer of your gold but its enough to know
You are good

And through it all youve given me
A peace that overflows
Oh how I know
That you are good

So good to me
You are good
