

Bleed The Dream, Be There

Hello,
My name is, dead to you,
Would you like to spend some time and get to know me?
I've been waiting,
I've been waiting,
I've been waiting here for you.

So will you be there when you call my name?
When I come home, will you be the same?
And will you be there when you seem unchanged?
When I come home, will I be reclaimed?

Goodbye to everything I knew,
Now I need to spend some time,
And get to know me,
I've been crying,
I've been crying,
I've been crying here for you.

So will you be there when you call my name?
When I come home, will you be the same?
And will you be there when you seem unchanged?
When I come home, will I be reclaimed?
