

Bleeding Through, Insomniac

This day on never will I look back on you
Those memories are dormant
And every thought of you
And I'll see you in dreams please
Never let me sleep again
Drop your eyes to the ground
Stay the fuck away from me

Those three words none existent forever you condemned
In my perfect world your pain to me
Your pain as great as gold
In my perfect world, you were always there
But your words ran stale and you were never there
You were never there

This time I swear
There's hope for tomorrow
You turned your eyes from me
And now I'm stronger without you
This time I swear
There's hope for tomorrow
You turned your eyes from me
And now I'm stronger without you
This time I swear
There's hope for tomorrow
You turned your eyes from me
And now I'm stronger without you
