

Bleeding Through, Portrait Of The Goddess

Goddess

Goddess of hate I've seen this face before

I do believe I've heard this voice before

So many lines

So many words

And I don't regret a single one

Do you despise the reflection when you look at yourself?

Yourself

Remove

Remove the blindfold

One single thought

One single breath

One smoking gun and no regrets

What happened to the girl I used to hold?

I'm the demon in your eyes but you're the Goddess of my heart

Now I need you to feel me and kiss my lips one more time

One more time

One more time, no regrets

One more time, and no regrets

One more time, that's all you'll fucking get

One more time, that's all you'll ever get

What do I have to gain?

Your face in front of me

What do I have to lose?

Yourself in front of me

Well that time is now, you'll get

For last time, that's all you need

Well that time is now, you'll get

For last time, that's all you need

Goddess

Goddess of hate I've seen this face before

I do believe I've heard this voice before

So many lines

So many words

And I don't regret a single one

A single one

A single one
