

BLIND, Cry

Out here in this desert
The sky, it seems so high
Arms outstretched and open wide
Do you see these tears i cry?
Longing for some human touch
Longing, for that sweet emotion
Lately I reside beyond these things
To a place that's deep inside

(CHORUS)

This place called desolation
Full of locks, with no keys
Many faces, with no names
Amazing Grace, I seek thee here
I know that it's in your plan
That I might come to this awful place
Here I found my knees again
I remembered your name

(CHORUS)

I remembered your name
In this lonely place
I found my knees again
In this awful place
I remembered your name
In this lonely place
I found my knees again
I will be back again

(CHORUS)

(blind rox)
