

Blind Guardian, I'm Alive

I run through the dark fields of the plains
reach level 99
the pain cuts deep down through my vein
how will I break the ice welcome to my reality
dream forever
sunlight instead of neon light how will it be welcome to my grave
and feel the dream is over nothing can stop me I reach out for the top

caught in an old cage
the system failed
built up on lies
now I see that I'm alone
in asylum's cage
I'm left alone

I'm alive my friend
I can feel the shadows everywhere
I'm alive
I left the shadows
far behind me
another one is waiting in the dark

they say the system keeps the last chance to survive caught in this labyrinth of walls and lots of lies then i began to understand there's more above than ice to reach the top
I crept deep down
the answers given in the past a senseless worth
in useless brains
magic runes
without a meaning
besides the dark
there should be nothing left

caught in an old cage
in asylum's cage

I'm alive my friend
I'm alive

outside they say death is waiting but it creeps down through the shaft finds pleasure in our helpless fear fills empty rooms

with morbid thought
they've locked the door and hold the key
sitting beside you
when silent screams
changing my mind and dreams oh, It's never ending

I'm alive my friend
I'm alive
