

Blind Guardian, Tommyknockers

She's opening her eyes to find the thing
by a touch she's lost it's waiting for her a long time the kingdom's lost cause there's one nail missing playing with fire
turn of the light and she will fall down playing with her life
but she can't leave it there's one rhyme in her brain

Oh, last night and the night before Tommyknockers, Tommyknockers
knocked at your back door Tommyknockers

The pain in my head
the cycle awakes
I'm on my way to Oz
I want to drink and she wants to dig she's in trouble oh I know there's something going wrong Tommyknockers on their way What's up in "Leighton Street"?

Oh, last night and the night before
Tommyknockers, Tommyknockers

I'm the hero, I'm back with weapons and with magic spells I'll saddle every task an old, ill and drunken guy

The moon is full of blood I've found her not, not far from home I should better get away from here she's on her way to be another one playing with fire
she can read my thoughts it's too late
Tommyknockers brought her trouble now

The ship in the earth I touch a vibration is filling me and music in my head nose is bleeding and my fall down filled me up with pain What's that cry?
you'll be like a Tommyknocker I will be like you but there's something going wrong I read it in your face

Oh, last night and the night before
Tommyknockers knocked at your back door
