

Blind Guardian, Twilight of the Gods

How they dared to be such misguided creatures
How they dared to be of such evil nature

Spiral up to doors all sealed, no turning back
Red door to Discordia

Steal the stars, deceive the day
(A sign of evil)
They're gone with a final warning

Witness the twilight of the gods
Will they ever return?
A storm will take us and then wipe us out
There's no retreat

We're trapped in twilight while the gods will drowse
(Gods will drowse)
They'll wait and sleep until a new dawn saves us from the dark

The damage's done
The king is gone

There is war wherever I'll roam
Gods will come and gods will go
The spinning wheel keeps turning

Now get up, lay down your ancient faith
We're the chosen ones
Come feel the change
A way, let me show a new way
When you dare to walk with me
Bow down and surrender

The old gods, black or white
To me it's grey
A sign of evil
I hail all these non-believers

Witness the twilight of the gods
Will they ever return?
A storm will take us and then wipe us out
There's no retreat

We're trapped in twilight while the gods will drowse
(Gods will drowse)
They'll wait and sleep until a new dawn saves us from the dark

Deliver your gods, they shall be slain
I'm their fallen son, don't be afraid

A way, let me show a new way
When you're gonna walk with me
As one we're infernal
What's going up, it will come down
We're here to change
There's war in Discordia

Sure as death, we all must fade
(A sign of evil)
Now reach for a new horizon

Witness the twilight of the gods
Will they ever return?
A storm will take us and then wipe us out

There's no retreat

We're trapped in twilight while the gods will drowse

(Gods will drowse)
