Blind Guardian, Wizard's Crown

Years ago I came back
This has been my hardest attack
A burning fire's in my brain
I could feel the deadly flame

Tales of the magic in my head
To a dark dream I fall in my mind
I hold the key of fortune

To feel the strange thing's in my mind
The stone of Amber I must find
I'll take the chance that day

Refrain:
Halloween - The wizard's crown I'll take - on
Halloween
Halloween - But there is no return - on
Halloween

Lead: Andre

I'm the servant of the Blind to cross the realms of death
The gate is open wide you cannot close

His dungeons deep no place to hide
The times have changed he has to fight
In magic spell I fall

Illusions falling to my mind
But where's the key I cannot find
The ritual has begun

Refrain:
Halloween - The wizard's crown I'll take - on
Halloween
Halloween - But there is no return - on
Halloween

Solo: Andre

The battle has begun
The warlock's time has come
I pay the price I have to pay

Why haven't see the signs
I'm loosing now my life
But cannot die forever life

Refrain:
Halloween - The wizard's crown I'll take - on
Halloween
Halloween - But there is no return - on
Halloween
Halloween - The wizard's crown I'll take - on

Lead: Andre
