

Blind Iris, Trust Issues

I've got trust issues
Is what she said
Somethings lost
Is it all in your head
Careless moment
Random display
I tied to kiss her
But she turned her head away
She always turned away

Lowercase lies
Exaggerated Highs
Evidence of crimes
Committed along the way
Happy when your gone
Sad you came along
Just can't seem to find
The words to say

I'd show her
I know her
Fragile heart
Longs for adventure
My bed bestowed
She turned away
My friends all said she'd stay

Go between
Whiplash, scream
She feared things
I'd never scheme

Just because she's got sad eyes
Doesn't mean she's bonified
