

Blind Melon, Harmful Belly

Scratch my eyes out for you strap dynamite to my sides shed a carcass for you oh, empty out my soul
I'm begging you, just give me a chance stick with me and we'll see the rest

Oh, I'm paralyzed

I'll carve your name here in my chest Kill for you, and nothing less I'll burn alive no second thoughts
Just to hear your scratchy voice
Your scratchy voice

Rain is falling from your face, drink the rest that still remains on you
It feels so good it starts to hurt,
hurts so bad it starts to burn

I'll frame your eyes here on my wall

Feel your love when you are gone
It makes me sad when you are sad
I feel down when you are down
I'm begging you, just give me a chance
stick with me and we'll see the rest

Rain is falling from your face,
drink the rest that still remains on you
It feels so good it starts to hurt,
hurts so bad it starts to burn

Why would you ever change? it's a mystery have me finally come apart? .....
You're the reason i.....

Rain is falling from your face,
drink the rest that still remains on you
It feels so good it starts to hurt,
hurts so bad it starts to burn
