Blink-182, Depends

I don't want to urinate on myself I don't want to urinate on anyone else Well, I guess that really doesn't matter anymore Because I can't control my bladder anymore

Well, I guess it all depends (undergarments) Well, I guess it all depends (undergarments)

Step back in the light No more soiled nights alone But I guess I don't have a care Because there's not a load in my underwear

I'm sick of offending everyone I meet (go, go, go, go) I'm sick of crying myself to sleep on rubber sheets (go) I had an accident today I left a soil on a bus seat, I didn't know what to say

But, I guess it all depends (undergarments) Well, I guess it all depends (undergarments)

Step back into life (go, go) No more soiled nights alone Well, I guess that I don't have a care If I don't have a load in my underwear
