Bliss 66, Life Is

Disgrace
This place
now i lied to you face to face
So much for self control
Tied down
I'm bound
No, I can't get up off the ground
I'm such a wretched soul
Life is a long long road
Pain is a heavy load

These fears
These tears
Now i've cried for so many years
For some kind of helping hand
It's you
It's true
No, i never really had a clue
I know you'd understand
Life is a long long road
Pain is a heavy load
(1.. 2.. 3.. YEEAAAHHH)

Life is A bliss You're love is happiness New life is in my soul (repeat 4x)

Sometimes I wonder where I'd be If I didnt have your hand to guide me I'm not much on my own You know that I'd find it quite frightening If I didn't have you standin' beside me I can't make it alone (repeat 5x)
