

Bloem De Ligny, Blue Nix

Seven was closer
And it has no end
I freeze it for now and I
Follow in blue

Nothing as gentle
Blue as an icecave,
Closer than ice
Closer than ice

Colder than sorrow
More than you know,
I I want to believe it,
There is nothing as cold

Seven was closer
And it has no end
I freeze it for now and I
Follow in blue

Nothing as gentle
Blue as an icecave,
Closer than ice
Closer than ice

There is nothing as cold
As you and an icecave
I touch and you melt down
I touch and you melt down
I touch and you melt down
You don't even know it
How much I want to believe it
You, you, you are so wrong
You, you, you are so wrong
You, you, you are so wrong
Ice, ice, ice, ice, ice
