Blonde Redhead, Hated Because Of Great Qualit

Secret, so sorry, but I forgot Secret, secret, we are bound to forget I was worried I might be rude to you So worried that I was It's a lie to serve the truth And I'm still guilty Oh, I missed So be it

Everywhere, everything you ever touch

Cutting it won't do it There's nothing to it

You were sorry that I was alone

So sorry you ran away

Putting it on me, but you already knew it

Oh, it was never meant to be

I can't understand this at all

I can't pronounce this at all

These are different matters

These are uncertain feelings

These should never be discussed

So keep it to yourself

Oh, I missed

So be it

Everywhere, everything you ever touch

Cutting it won't do it

There's nothing to it

You were sorry that I was alone

So sorry you ran away

Putting it on my, but you already knew it

Oh it was never meant to be

So be it

I can't understand this at all

I can't pronounce this at all

These are different matters

These are uncertain feelings

These should never be discussed

So keep them to yourself
