Bloodbath, Earthrot

A stream from the virgin wounds sunken into the moors The bones of past ancestors infesting forgotten mass graves

The bloodletting of christianity an ancient whisper from the past Buried in the soil like secret folklore eating away on the roots of mankind

Human earthrot earthrot

The martyr's celebration the blood sunken deep into the earth Futile pipedream twisted beliefs Confirming the parasite features of mankind

We are all lying we are all dying Earthrot apocalyptic nightmare Majestic unstoppable conspiracy

The weak reahing for the gun infect the earth once more Pulsating against the core nuclear winter in its wake
