

Bloodflowerz, Heart Of Stone

you fly with false wings too close to the sun built your throne near to babylon you adore all you are, stand over everyone you're alone

your aims are so honest, empty words sound wise sell your truth when you speak so nice the stars in your eyes are beautiful lies your heart is ice in your prayer there is no love your arrow of peace kills all the doves mirror, mirror on the wall

- is there someone who is better than we all mirror, mirror of myself
- please show me the sins of my inner self in your lonely heart of ice still lives a child who sadly cries mirror, mirror we're not alone, is there a tear to move a heart of stone is there enough space for us to live, is there enough air for us to breathe don't fly too high, i see you fall your deaf ears ignored the warning call i see you fall, i see you crash from the sky when will we fall, when will we crash from the sky mirror, mirror on the wall - is there someone who is better than we all
