

Bloodflowerz, Violent Voices

in dead dreams i saw your face i am on the run countless days eors versus thantos every night i nail your heart to the cross in strangers arms i searched for love but everything i found was not enough all was not enough, all is...

not enough
for my dying heart
not enough
when my battle starts again
not enough
when the voices call
not enough
'cause i yearn to fall again i found hell before i die pleasure seems to be just a lie violent voices call my name every night they call me to do the same in strangers arm i searched for love but everything i found was not enough all was not enough, all was...
