

Bloodgood, Say Goodbye

I want to kiss you one last time
I want to press your lips to mine
The hands I used to hold
The arms that stopped the cold
Where's the face I used to touch
The breath that whispered love

I never thought I'd say goodbye
I want to hold you one last time
We always said "I love you"
Can't stop thinking of you

I thought I heard you at the door
I long to hear your voice once more
The laughter in your eyes
You made me realize
Love is not some fantasy
But now it's just a memory

I never thought I'd say goodbye
I want to hold you one last time
We always said "I love you"
I never thought I'd say goodbye

Memories keep playing
Over and over
Turn my thoughts towards heaven
Now that it's over

(This song is dedicated to Dee Macek and to the memory of her husband, Walter)
