

Bloodline, Werewolf Training

[Music: Sasrof, Set; Lyrics: Sasrof; Intro by Survival unit, outro by Jiehna]

Fanatic genocidal passion
With earth murdering desires Endless repulsion towards man and all the filthy things he admire
The worship of synthetic souls
And a order from a history of lies
May all this world finally dies

Hatred of infernal proportions
Flow through the depths of my soul
all love abolished
From my cold black heart
All humans begone
Your lives are all done for My obsession shall slay you all
I willredeem the fire and be your fall

I shall seduce your young ones
I shall be the last one remaining
I feel the bloodlines
I am werewolf training

All emotions overthrown
All feelings deleted
They all lie
They all deserve to die
