

Bloody Mess, Break your TV

You can't break x3
Break your

A twisted point beyond repair
Is stripped apart and lying bare
Open your eyes what can you see
A feeble vision of life on TV

Which points are taken, which are free
It's hard to say when on TV
But if you turn your volume down
It will produce the only truthful sound

Until it's fucking gone
Until you're free
And there is no more TV
