

Bloody Mess, Twist

This is how it feels
When you break me
I turned my hand on you
So that you'd see
There was no other way (but)
To put you down
Now the table's turned
Who's the clown now?

You reap what you sow
That's all you'll ever know
What you ever know
What you ever know

How could you be so blind?
Now you're bleeding
I'm paying you in kind
For your treatment
Set in stone in your old ways
So I moved you
So morally decayed
Where is your truth?

And then I smile when I feel your pain
Cause deep inside I don't care if you changed
You turned me into your twisted self
You fucking cunt I'll see you in Hell
