

Bloody Sunday, False Ideas of Perfection

i will never believe this is all we are meant to be too many unanswered questions for a world with all the answers how can we rely on us when we don't know who we are or why we are here

when you look to the sky what do you see does your mind go on forever or are you lost in the limitations of human frailty the weakness of our eyes you think you've seen all it but really you've been blind i see my father looking down on me i feel his presence in the air i breathe communication is a source of corruption impress false ideas of perfection i won't let you cry for me you think my faith is built on ignorance i am not blinded by humanity this world plays home to the godless your ambivalence guides you you will die in your sins change your ways and fall away from this creation we near the bitter end

you spent all your life living in denial so what you haven't murdered faith isn't judged by works alone to earn your place in the kingdom of heaven you've got to separate yourself from this world

i will fight til your tragic end to defend my king
i will lift lift his name up high for all to hear
