

Blu Cantrell, 10,000 Times

Been in love ten thousand times
(Yeah)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(Yea, yeah)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
What would you do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too?
Been a long time since I've been serious
Now you're curious
Well I can't stand to feel your touch
I might start to like it a little too much
And it hurts when I'm pushin' you away
It's three months from now you won't stay, ho
Just when the lovin' gets good you'll be gone
And I'll be left with a broken heart to heal all alone
Been in love ten thousand times
(Yeah)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(Yeah)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
What would you do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too?
Keep tellin' me it won't be
What I'm used to you won't hurt me
But that's so hard to believe
'Cause everyone said the same damn thing to me, ohh
And the sad thing is I want you
But my heart keeps tellin' me don't trust you
'Cause just when the lovin' gets good you'll be gone
And I'll be left with a broken heart to heal all alone
Been in love ten thousand times
(Well)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(I've been hurt)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
What would you do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too?
(Yeah yeah yeah)
Been in love ten thousand times
(I've been in love)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(Ohh ohh ohh)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
But what would you do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too?
Maybe love just ain't for me
(Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh)
Why does this keep happenin'?
Maybe one day I'll trust you
(Day, trust you)
But for now
(Now ooh ooh)
Here's what I'm gonna say to you, ohh ohh
Been in love ten thousand times
(Yeah)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(Yeah yeah)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
What would you do if I gave my love to you

Would you hurt me too?
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Been in love ten thousand times
(I've been hurt)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(Ohh ohh ohh ohh)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
But what would you do if I gave my love to you
Would you hurt me too?
(Yeah ohh ohh)
Been in love ten thousand times
(I've been hurt)
And I've been hurt ten thousand times
(Woa woa woa)
Yet and still you want a try
(Are you gonna try?)
