

Blue, Haven't Found You Yet

Blurry pictures and silhouettes of Somebody
You that somebody?
Guilty pleasures got me obsessed
Like nobody
Don't make it easy

Yeah I might be over-reaching
Maybe you're with someone else
It's all about timing
All about timing
And I just can't help myself when
I have picked up on your scent
There's no more denying Denying

I will dream you into life
Like a song I can't forget
And I know that I will love you
I just haven't met you yet
Swear that I can almost taste you
Like there's something in the air
I just haven't found you
I just haven't found you
Found you yet

All these pieces will
Come together as soon as I
Can reach the other side
Close the distance between
Whats real and whats down the line

Yeah I might be over-reachinng
Maybe you're with someone else
Its all about timing
All about timing
And I just cant help myself when
I have picked up on your scent
There's no more denying

I will dream you into life
Like a song I can't forget
And I know that I will love you
I just haven't found you yet
Swear that I can almost taste you
Like there's something in the air
I just haven't found you
I just haven't found you
Found you yet

Can you hear me now
Feel I'm reaching out
If you hear me now
Won't you scream out loud

I will dream you into life
And I know that I will love you
Swear that I can almost taste you

I just haven't found you
