

Blue System, Crossing The River

Oh hey Marki, listen to this song, oh no
I don't know if it's right or wrong
It's not easy, to tell you my feelings
Oh hey Marki, when you're old enough, oh no
You'll see, this life is tough
It's not easy to tell you my feelings
Oh my time, my time will slip away
Can't hold it baby
And you're getting older every day

If you're crossing the river
If you're crossing this river, oh no
You're not a boy oh anymore
Not a little boy

Oh hey Marki, it's not a lie, oh no
There were million tears I cried
It's not easy to tell you my feelings
Oh hey Marki, I was so alone
Without you there's no home
It's not easy to tell you my feelings
I was strong, but my heart it was so weak
Can't hold it baby
See you tonight oh in my sleep
