

Blue System, Dr. Mabuse

Its alright, its ok, its an odyssee
Dr. Mabuse, Dr. Mabuse
Its a shame hell return, in a shade of grey
Dr. Mabuse, Dr. Mabuse
Every night, every day on the run
Hes the man who has stolen the sun
Oh he lost all his life - all his dreams
Born hundred years ago by machines
Hes living in the twilight sky
Lonely voices they will cry
In a train of silence he returned
In a temple he survived
A cathedral, dead mans life
Hes the soldier and your heart will burn
He faced the devil, faced the hell
Cant look back - dont tell
Its alright, its ok, its an odyssee
Dr. Mabuse, Dr. Mabuse
Its a shame hell return, in a shade of grey
Dr. Mabuse, Dr. Mabuse
Every night, every day on the run
Hes the man who has stolen the sun
Oh he lost all his life - all his dreams
Born hundred years ago by machines
Oh seven ways of loneliness
Tall strange man, old black dress
You can see his silhouette in black
A kiss of death - a secret friend
Hes the loser in the end
The soldier of the darkness, hell come back
Hes knocking on forbidden doors
Like years and years before
