

Blue System, Michael Is Gone For A Soldier

Oh, he got a ticket to USA
Said: "Hey man, you're okay"
Gone to fight for your land
Michael understand
He got a ticket and he said :
"Time for breakfast in my bed"
Baby, there's no helping hand
Michael understand
He starts to cry
Shining in his eyes
His heart will die
In the lonely falling sky
Oh, Michael is gone for a soldier
Michael has gone tonight
A suitcase is waiting, I told you
Life has lost his pride
He shock the devil, a broken flame
Sea of dreams and no name
Oh, his heart will never mend
Michael understand
'Till the sun has left the sky"
He has to kill, don't know why
Writing letters in the sand
Michael understand
He starts to cry
Shining in his eyes
His heart will die
In the lonely falling sky
